For the New-York Tribune. To the Editor of The Tribune:

As a context to the friendly warnings which rou have so repeatedly extended to the "verdant milemen" who happen to be coming to the city those in England, in mutual innocent uncongainst those pests of our steamboats and landmes in the shape of "droppers," "burners," &c., you will be good enough to publish one for the new names and foreign dress; and authors are grassy ladies" who may be coming to or going out of town, against the practice of carrying their workbags in such places with any thing valuable | York, or the Three Beauties," was the same as in them, attached to their arms. A DEMOCRAT OF THE FOURTEENTH WARD.

Repudiation. The following is a copy of a Petition addressed

Congress by the Rev. Sydney Smith, the wellmown English author. It tells some stinging raths-in a very polished and pointed manner: "I petition your honorable house to institute ome measures for the restoration of American redit, and for the repayment of debts incurred and repudiated by several of the States. Your his patron had not introduced him as a nameless petitioner lent to the State of Pennsylvania a sum money, for the purpose of some public improvement. The amount, though small, is to him important, and is a saving from a life income, made with difficulty and privation. If their refusal to pay (from which a very large number of English fimilies are suffering) had been the result of war, produced by the unjust aggression of powerful enemies; if it had arisen from civil discord; if it had proceeded from an improvident application of means in the first years of self-government; if itwere the act of a poor state struggling against | mounted by a hemispherical revolving dome of the barrenness of nature-every friend of Ameri- twenty-two feet diameter, supported on circular sa would have been contented to wait for better | walls built up from the foundation to a hight of simes; but the fraud is committed in the profound seven feet above the roof. To the east and ters are every day reaping the advantage. It is west sides of this edifice will be built wings, each an act of bad faith which (all its circumstances twenty-six and a half feet long and twenty-one considered) has no parallel, and no excuse. Nor is it only the loss of property which your nearly the same dimensions, and the dome, conpultioner laments; he laments still more that stitutes the astronomical observatory required for immense power which the bad faith of America has given to aristocratical opinions, and to the will resemble somewhat that at Mumich, being memies of free institutions in the old world. It in the form of a cross and entirely beneath the sin vain any longer to appeal to history, and to ground. point out the wrongs which the many have received from the few. The Americans, who bosst to have improved the institutions of the old world, have at least equalled its crimes. A great nation, after trampling under foot all earthly tyranny, has been guilty of a fraud as enormous sever disgraced the worst king of the most de. a Vertical Force Magnetometer; a Standard Bagaded nation of Europe.

It is most painful to your petitioner to see that American citizens excite, wherever they may a Solar Thermometer; a Thermometer in Param, the recollection that they belong to a dislonest people, who pride themselves on having ticked and pillaged Europe; and this mark is fied, by their faithless legislators, on some of the best and most honorable men in the world, whom very Englishman has been eager to see, and moud to receive.

It is a subject of serious concern to your petifoner that you are losing all that power which the standard treatises on astronomy and physical the friends of freedom rejoiced that you possesslooking upon you as the ark of human hapmess, and the most splendid picture of justice and of wisdom that the world had yet seen. Little did the friends of America expect it, and ad is the spectacle, to see you rejected by every sale in Europe, as a nation with whom no contact can be made, because none will be kept; instable in the very foundations of social life, debeent in the elements of good faith, men who Meier any load of infamy, however great, to any pressure of taxation, however light.

Nor is it only this gigantic bankruptcy for 'so many degrees of longitude and latitude which your petitioner deplores, but he is alarmed also by that total want of shame with which these lings have been done, the callous immorality with which Europe has been plundered, that eadness of the moral sense which seems to prerlude all return to honesty, to perpetuate this new mamy, and to threaten its extension over every state of the Union.

To any man of real philanthropy, who receives bleasure from the improvements of the world, the epudiation of the public debts of America, and the shameless manner in which it has been talked of and done, is the most melancholy event which has happened during the existence of the present generation. Your petitioner sincerely prays that the great and good men still existing among you may, by teaching to the United States the deep degrace they have incurred in the whole world, estore them to moral health, to that high position they have lost, and which, for the happiness of mankind, it is so important they should ever maintain; for the United States are now workmg out the greatest of all political problems, and upon that confederacy the eyes of thinking men we intensely fixed, to see how far the mass of mankind can be trusted with the management of their own affairs, and the establishment of their own happiness."

Caution.—The Traveling Public are cantioued against paying their fare at Albuny, Schenectady or Utica any further West than Syracuse, or suffering their bargage to be put in the Cars going West of Utica, as there are other modes of conveyance from that place to Rochester, Lewiston, Niugara Falls and Buffalo, much cheaper and pleasanter. THIS MEDICINE stands unrivalled, (based as it is on its intrinsic merits,) for the removal and radical cure of those diseases to which it is peculiarly adapted. Being outlinely vergetable, and composed of the choicest selection of ingredients, which act in consonance with the laws that ing entirely vegetable, and composed of the choicest selection of ingredients, which act in consonance with the laws that govern the animal economy, the system is enabled to throw off disease, take on a healthy action, and the powers of nature resume their natural functions. Thousands can, and have, testified to its efficacy in removing various chronic constitutional diseases, originating in an unhealthy or depraved state of the blood and other flunds, serofula or enlargement of the glands, rheumatism and lumbago, salt rheum, ring worm, barber's itch, ectema and other similar affections, are safely and effectually cured by its use, but as by the "chosen few," this is sometimes termed quackery, the subject requires a passing remark. "The question, what is quackery and who is a quack, is of serious moment, and as the preservation of health is too important to be trilled with, it is of the greatest consequence where disease invades our physical frame, to take prompt and efficient measures to repel the attack. Whether he who stands on his reserved rights, and prescribes ad libitum; the most powerful agents, including some of the most virulent poisons, and an ease of a fatal termination, simply says that the patient died of —, or he who by laborious and long continued investigation, draws forth from the arcans of nature hidden stores of useful knewledge and applies it to the benefit of suffering humanity, risking his own reputation in the result, is most entirled to public confidence, the afficted can determine. It is the mark of a weak and prejudiced mind, to reject any thing as false because it does not agree with its own percention within as false because it does not agree with its own percention of the most specified and denotions; but it is evidence of a noble and generou mind to

New-York, April 29th, 1843.

Messra, Sands: Gentlemen—Although it may be considered unnecessary for me to add another proof to the justly deserved celebrity of your invaluable proparation of Sarsaparilla, yet for the benefit of my fellow men, I feel bound to proclaim the fact: From being a most helpless cripple, with a disease of the lower extremities, which spread over the legs, instep, and feet, distressing me so much, as to render life almost miserable. I am new quite recovered and entirely by the use of your Sarsaparilla. For two years I was unable to wear a shoe, and the right foot and anche were very much swollen—which at times discharge water and put freely, accompanied with violent techniq—a, d burning sensations, so as to deprive me of all rest.
